

Conduct and Customs

Everyone is requested to display the proper customs of etiquette, decorum and behavior, and to obey all Tournament policies, signs and verbal instructions of Tournament officials. For the safety of everyone, and in keeping with policy established at major sporting events, running is considered to be unacceptable behavior. In fairness to patron access and viewing, only one stool/seat will be allowed per person entering the grounds. Seats in observation stands are not to be reserved and stools/seats are not to be unattended for any inordinate length of time. Although cheering and positive patron responses to great play are encouraged, unsolicited or consistent calls from the gallery are prohibited.

For player safety and protection, there is a NO AUTOGRAPH POLICY enforced on the golf course for the Practice and Tournament days. Autograph seeking is allowed only in areas adjacent to the Practice Range and on the Par 3 course during the Par 3 Contest.

Etiquette

"In golf, customs of etiquette and decorum are just as important as rules governing play. It is appropriate for spectators to applaud successful strokes in proportion to difficulty but excessive demonstrations by a player or his partisans are not proper because of the possible effect upon other competitors.

Most distressing to those who love the game of golf is the applauding or cheering of misplays or misfortunes of a player. Such occurrences have been rare at the Masters but we must eliminate them entirely if our patrons are to continue to merit their reputation as the most knowledgeable and considerate in the world."
